LARGE PROPERTY IN IDYLLIC RURAL SETTING

This two-storey large property currently divided into apartments, one of which has recently been renovated to a high standard. There is an existing accommodation license and has potential for further development as well as permission to construct a swimming pool with plans having already been submitted to the town hall. The area for the pool has already been identified and it would include a generous decked area for sun-bathing. Another idea is to install a series of solar panels in a field close to the house but screened off by a strip of trees.

This would be ideal for Rural tourism, an Equestrian centre, as a Retreat or, a perfect site for Glamping. The property is very well located, has easy access and has lots of privacy. It's secluded, but not isolated. The local village is a walk away and it has everything fo
