Unique Home Business - Monchique

This truly unique property is currently being run as a fully licensed Bed & Breakfast with 3 beautifully styled rooms in the main part of the house on 2 floors and with private owner's accommodation on the ground level. It would equally make a lovely family home.

The property built in 1900 is full of charm and character and has been lovingly restored by the owner with no expense spared and with great attention to detail. Many of the original features remain and have indeed been highlighted and in turn combined with modern comforts such as central & underfloor heating, superior hard wood windows, ornate ironwork with bespoke design, and vintage bathroom fittings in order to create a delightful and very comfortable home business.
