7 Bedroom vacation Home

The decoration of this House makes us retreat to the years of the beginning of tourism in the Algarve, where traditional families came here to spend, not a few days of vacation, but the whole summer and so the house had all the facilities for long stays. This is one of those cases. The house has 7 bedrooms, five bathrooms, a large mezzanine easily convertible into one more division, some of the rooms have a private bathroom, the large living room communicates with the dining area where a huge table indicates that the house was occupied by a Large family. And these spaces, in their overwhelming majority communicate with the outside. Most of these spaces are covered with regional tiled "Santa Catarina" and the bathrooms are lined with marble. The common area, living room and dining room open onto a large terrace where a pleasant swimming pool lives up to the holiday time. The pool area communicates direc
