Farm with Accommodation License close to Lagos

This two-storey large property is situated in an idyllic rural setting close to the popular town of Lagos and less than an hour from Faro International Airport. Currently divided into apartments and with an existing accommodation license there is potential for further development of up to 2000 square metres as well as viability to construct a swimming pool.

This would be ideal for a retreat style operation or, rural tourism venture with it being so well located, easy to access and with a good amount of privacy and seclusion yet close to all amenities. The property is just 10 minutes from the south coast by car and approximately 20 minutes to the west coast. For the adventurous there are plenty of activities in the local area from mountain biking, hiking, and surfing to name but a few, with more relaxing pursuits like
